

Changing rules of broadcast ownership is not only against interest of American people in general, but will also be destructive to our country and democracy as a whole. Consolidation is a bad idea. Our society can only progress through true competition and true freedom of the media, which will be destroyed with proposed rule changes. God knows that our government is heading for self-destruction!